

HTML Guide: Hyperlinks

Element	Code	Note
Anchor element	<code>hypertext</code>	Always has an attribute Used to create a hyperlink
Hyperlink Reference attribute	<code>HyperText</code>	Indicates the link's destination. Either absolute or relative URL <ul style="list-style-type: none">• An unvisited link is underlined and blue• A visited link is underlined and purple• An active link is underlined and red
Target attribute	<code></code>	Optional Opens the linked document into the specified window or tab “_blank” opens the link document into an unnamed window or tab The value can also be a custom name
Title attribute	<code></code>	Optional Displays text in a tool tip box
Mailto value	<code></code>	Value must be a string without spaces

URL Dissected

Protocol	Server Name	Domain	Directory	Filename	Extension
http://	www. info. store.	apple.com/	lion/mail/	mail_help	.html

Mailto Multiple Recipients

```

```